Kathryn Casano Radecke

Why are you interested in serving on a board or commission?

Since returning to Vero Beach after graduating from Stetson University, I have been interested in giving my time back to the community that raised me. I am specifically passionate towards the integrity of the construction industry in our county. As third generation in our family electrical contracting company, I have directly witnessed the variance of approach in quality and ethics of general contractors, subcontractors, owner/builder projects, etc. In the past 7 years, I have listened to countless homeowners, business owners, and contractors complain about how difficult it is to complete a project within our county. However, after directly witnessing the after-math of unlicensed work after the 2004 hurricanes, I am a strong advocate for upholding national, state, and local building codes/laws/regulations. It would be an honor to be involved in the county process of understanding and reviewing these scenarios in more depth to maintain a higher standard for construction in Indian River County.
