3. This proposal details the scope of work included in the above price. If any conditions are found upon commencement of the work requiring additional repairs, ie underneath the liner, work will stop until such time that the owner has been notified of the additional work required, and has been provided with and agreed to the cost for the additional materials and labor necessary to complete the work. 4. Demo, civil works, site works, excavation & hauling, concrete works, sealing, backfill, deck construction, coping, electrical works, grounding works, mechanical works, and commissioning works are not included in this price, unless specifically noted. 5. North County Aquatic Center has agreed to and acknowledged to forever release, hold harmless and indemnify A & W Flooring, Inc. of and from any and all losses, liability (including liability for personal injury or property damage), claims, liens, demands, damages (including consequential, incidental and punitive damages and attorney fees) and causes of action relating to or arising from work performed or materials supplied by A & W Flooring, Inc. Same applies to any subcontractor used for Dewatering, outside the scope of work of A & W Flooring, Inc. A & W will not be held responsible for anything once the pool has been drained. North County Aquatic Center is responsible for draining and refilling the pool. 6. Project Repair date will be contingent upon all materials are shipped and on jobsite, and weather is not a factor of delay, otherwise a possible date change could be required. A & W Flooring, Inc. will not be responsible for liquidated damages per day thereafter if delay is caused by natural disasters, weather or a delay of material shipment. Project estimated 5 weeks for completion. Material Delivery is between 45 - 60 days from written approval of scope. 7. Permitting will be responsibility of others, not A & W Flooring, Inc. Items not specifically included in the referenced quotation are not included in the Net Sell Price.
