

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY

NON-PROFIT GRANT APPLICATION

Through the federal American Rescue Plan (ARP) Act funding program, the Indian River County Board of County Commissioners is providing one-time grants of up to $10,000 to qualifying non-profit organizations operating in Indian River County, negatively affected by the COVID-19 Pandemic (see Eligible List of Non-Profits).

The grant is limited to one application per non-profit, including organizations with multiple locations within Indian River County. Funds may be used for business-related expenses incurred after March 3, 2021. Funds may not be used for the exact same expense that was paid by other federal programs for the same time period. Applications will be accepted and processed until the funds are exhausted.

All completed grant applications will be submitted electronically to the Florida Small Business Development Center (SBDC) at Indian River State College (IRSC) for initial processing on the County's behalf. Once final approval is given, grant payments will be mailed by the Indian River County Finance Office.

To meet grant eligibility criteria, the non-profit must:

- Be a non-profit headquartered in Indian River County that was negatively affected by the COVID-19 Pandemic (see list of Eligible Non-Profits) by experiencing an increase in demand for services or costs to provide services such as PPE, enhanced cleaning, etc.
- Be registered as either a 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) and be in good standing with the State of Florida, IRS, County and/or United Way and had received its non-profit status prior to March 1, 2020
- Have 25 or fewer full time equivalent (FTE) employees, including the business owner
- Have been in operation since October 1, 2019
- Expect to return to full operations
- Have done business or received funding from either the United Way or Indian River County over the past 10 years (see list of Eligible Non-Profits)
- Have no active judgements, liens, bankruptcies, etc. against the organization or owner(s)
- Be current on all tangible personal property and/or real estate taxes
- Employ executive/administrative staff and have a Board of Directors
- Provide last 6 months of Board of Director meeting minutes
- Provide number of people served before and after COVID-19 (ex. March/April 2020 vs. March/April 2021)

- Provide a plan going forward to prove the intent to remain operational after the pandemic

Ineligible businesses include:

- Businesses with more than 25 FTE Employees
- Non-Profits headquartered outside of Indian River County
- Those not negatively affected by the COVID-19 Pandemic
- A non-profit that has applied for, or received, ARP grant funding from a municipality in Indian River County.
- Funding for religious or political activities

Grant Compliance

If you do not comply with the requirements listed below and submit proper documentation, you will be responsible for repaying the grant in full.

Grant recipients must submit supporting documentation that they have registered with Florida SBDC within one month of submission of application as part of the Grant compliance. Click Here to Register

By clicking the Submit button below, I agree to the following terms and conditions.

The Applicant agrees that neither Indian River County nor the FL Small Business Development Center at IRSC assume any responsibility for the success or failure of the Applicant's existing non-profit.

The information in this application is provided for the purpose of applying for the Indian River County Non-Profit Assistance Grant program. The information is accurate to the best of the Applicant's knowledge. The Applicant understands that personal and/or business information may be requested pursuant to this application and hereby grants consent for such information to be provided to Indian River County.

I (we) understand that any willful misrepresentation on this application could result in a fine and/or imprisonment under provision of the United States Criminal Code U.S.C. Title 18, Section 1001, and shall entitle the County to receive a return of any funding provided hereunder, in addition to any other remedies it may have against Applicant at law or in equity.

I (we) further understand that, pursuant to Section 92.525, Florida Statutes, a person who knowingly makes a false declaration thereunder is guilty of the crime of perjury by false written declaration, a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in Sections 775.082, 775.083 or 775.084, Florida Statutes.

The submitted application, including attachments, is subject to disclosure under Florida's public records law subject to limited applicable exemptions. The Applicant acknowledges, understands, and agrees that, except as noted below, all information in the application and attachments will be disclosed, without any notice to the Applicant, if a public records request is made for such information, and neither Indian River County nor the FL Small Business Development Center at IRSC will be liable to Applicant for such disclosure.

Social Security numbers are exempt from the public records law pursuant to Section 119.071, Florida Statutes.

If the Applicant believes that the information in their application, including attachments, contains information that is confidential and exempt from disclosure, the Applicant must include a general description of the information and provide reference to the Florida Statute or other law which exempts such designated information from disclosure in the event of a public records request. The County does not warrant or guarantee that information designated by the Applicant as exempt from disclosure is in fact exempt, and if the County disagrees, it will make such disclosures in accordance with its sole determination as to the applicable law.

You are authorized to make all the inquiries you deem necessary to verify the accuracy of the information contained herein. Additionally, the Applicant agrees that in the event that money is provided pursuant to this application, the County or its agent shall be entitled to access and audit such records as may be necessary to prevent fraud in this process or ensure compliance with federal requirements. The Applicant shall fully cooperate with the County or its agent and timely respond to any requests for such records.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Applicant specifically acknowledges and agrees that, if awarded funds pursuant to this application, the County, and any duly authorized agents or representative of the County are entitled to examine documentation which concern or relate to this Application at any and all times during normal business hours upon request.

Under penalties of perjury, I, the Applicant(s), declare that I have read the foregoing application and that the facts provided are true. I understand that knowingly making a false written declaration may be charged as a felony of the third degree.
