

Florida County Commissioners,

My name is Jack Sewell, and I work for Billy Kirkland who is the Deputy Director of Intergovernmental Affairs at the White House. Our office serves as the liaison between the White House and the State and Local governments.

Our office would like to extend an invitation for you to participate in the Florida County Commissioners' White House Conference on July 27.

The purpose of this event is to develop a working relationship between the White House/Federal Agencies and the County Commissioners of Florida. We hope you or a designated staffer will consider attending this event.

Florida State County Commissioners' White House Conference

Event Details:

Event Date: July 27, 2017

Location: The White House Complex

Building: The Eisenhower Executive Office Building

Room: South Court Auditorium

We will distribute a schedule and additional information (such as arrival logistics) next week, but we anticipate that the event will begin promptly at 12:00 PM.

Administration Participation:

The Intergovernmental Affairs team is coordinating the event schedule with the Federal Agencies. We anticipate representatives from each Federal Agency to participate in this event. The representatives of the agencies will be senior-level agency officials (including the potential for Cabinet Secretary participation). Senior-level White House staff will also lead and participate in portions of the event throughout the day. Our team will provide an updated schedule with participants.

One of the primary goals of this conference is to ensure that you are introduced to and put in contact with appropriate officials at each agency to ensure efficient coordination between the Federal Agencies and the Florida Counties. This conference will be an opportunity for the Administration to strengthen our relationship with local entities of government.

External Invitations:

Our team is extending invitations for this event to all County Commissioners in the state of Florida.

RSVP Instruction:

Please work with me, Jack Sewell (contact information listed below), in order to RSVP by July 20th at 5:00 PM and receive the logistics for the meeting.
