It was so great to meet you too! Sorry I have been a bit lax in responding to you. My very best friend has been in hospice since last week and I have been "other" focused. That said, it did give me some time to think about CSAC and what your expectations would be of me, and mine of course. I know this will be a disappointment but I think I will have to pass for now. Leafing through the "binder" was a good exercise to appreciate the vastness of the program. I probably do not have the bandwidth to give it 100% right now. I am so sorry. I will drop off the binder by the end of the week. If you can think of a smaller role let me know. All the very best,
Jan

Hi Jan,

Thank you again for taking the time to meet with me this week and for your interest in CSAC. I really appreciated our conversation and the chance to hear more about your background.

I completely understand wanting to take some time to think things through, and I respect that. I just wanted to let you know that I truly believe your experience in finance and the nonprofit world would be a huge asset to the committee—especially as we work on strengthening our grant application, process, and overall systems.

No pressure at all—just know that I'd love to have your perspective at the table if you decide to move forward. Please don't hesitate to reach out if any questions come up or if you'd like to talk more.

Thanks again for considering it.

With gratitude,

Megan
