

Will you be one of the thousands of Americans joining together to recognize National Gun Violence Awareness Day this June? Orange has long been the color of gun violence prevention and on June 2nd, residents, survivors, business owners, students, elected leaders, teachers, community leaders, parents and kids in (Community/City) will join together to #WearOrange and show indisputably that there is a movement of Americans committed to stop gun violence.

WHAT

A community gathering to honor victims and survivors of gun violence, and to work to end gun violence.
