Commissioners Open Dialogue

Commissioner Zorc spoke of the recent Tri-County Meeting that was held with St. Lucie and Martin Counties on October 3, 2019. Following the meeting, he was advised by representatives of St. Lucie County that they would be sending Foreign Trade Zone related application packets to Indian River County. Commissioner Zorc stated that he had a list of local businesses interested in applying for the subzone status.

Vice Chairman Adams thanked the Public Works and Recreation Departments for their work on the float for the Vero Beach "Through the Ages" Centennial Parade, to be held on October 26, 2019. She also discussed the Tri-County Legislative Meeting and the possibility of a new Estuary designation.

Commissioner Flescher noted his attendance at the Tri-County Meeting. He also attended the Special Olympics State Swimming Championship held on October 5-6, 2019, and he expressed the pride he felt for the work done by the County staff to make the event memorable for everyone who participated and attended.

Chairman Solari mentioned his absence from the Tri-County Meeting, as he was on vacation with his wife. While on vacation, they witnessed the USS Cincinnati Commissioning Ceremony in Gulfport, Mississippi. He provided a short history lesson to the public and his fellow commissioners, and he relayed the highlights of their trip.
