As to the Lot hereinabove granted, Grantee covenants and agrees, by accepting and placing this Deed of record in the public records of Indian River County, Florida, that Grantor conveys the Lot to Grantee with the following restrictions ("Restrictions") that run with the land and touch and concern both the Lot and any and all single family or multi family residential dwelling rental units constructed on the Lot: For the purposes of this Deed, the Lot as improved with the single family or multi family residential dwelling rental units is herein referenced as the "Property", and any one individual rental unit is herein referenced as a "Rental Property Unit":

1. Use of Property. Each Rental Property Unit shall be used solely for residential rental purposes. The Rental Property Unit may not be used for any non-residential purposes whatsoever, except for home office uses permitted by applicable zoning regulations.

2. Definitions. The following terms as used in this Deed shall have the meanings given below:

2.1. "Rented" means execution of a Rental Agreement between the Grantee as landlord and the Tenant for one of the Rental Property Units at a Rent that is Affordable.

2.2 "Tenant" means the natural person who has or natural persons who have: (a) Rented the Rental Property Unit to use and occupy as the principal residence of the household; and (b) a household Adjusted Gross Income (as defined herein) that qualifies as Very-Low-Income or Low-Income (as such terms are defined in Florida Statutes section 420.0004).

2.3. "Adjusted for Family Size" means adjusted in a manner which results in an income eligibility level which is lower for households with fewer than four people, or higher for households with more than four people, than the base income eligibility determined as provided in Florida Statutes section 420.0004(1) based upon a formula as established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

2.4. "Adjusted Gross Income" means all wages, income from assets, regular cash or noncash contributions or gifts from persons outside the household, and such other resources and benefits as may be determined to be income by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development, Adjusted for Family Size (as defined herein), less deductions allowable under section 62 of the Internal Revenue Code. "Adjusted Gross Income" is calculated on an annual basis.

2.5. "Affordable" is defined to mean that monthly Rent payments do not exceed 30 percent of the annual Adjusted Gross Income for a household that is Very-Low-Income or Low-Income (as such terms are defined in Florida Statutes section 420.0004).

2.6. "Rent" means the periodic payments due to the Grantee as landlord from the Tenant for occupancy under a Rental Agreement and any other payments due to the Grantee as landlord from the Tenant that are designated as rent in the Rental Agreement.

2.7. "Rental Agreement" means any legally binding written residential lease agreement, including amendments or addenda, between the Grantee as landlord and a Tenant, providing for use and occupancy of a Rental Property Unit.

3. Rental of Property. The Rental Property Unit shall be Rented only by Tenants who meet the criteria set forth hereinbelow.

4. Maintenance of Property. Grantee shall maintain the exterior of the Rental Property Units in good repair, including, but not limited to, painting, landscaping and lawn maintenance, as necessary. Grantee shall maintain the Rental Property Units in accordance with the applicable laws, regulations and ordinances of the County, and if applicable, the governing municipality. For so long as the original Grantee is the owner of the Lot, the Property, or the Rental Property Units, the maintenance obligations set forth herein are binding on Grantee.

5. Covenants Run with the Land. All covenants, conditions and restrictions contained in this Deed shall be covenants running with the land, and to the fullest extent permitted by law and equity, be binding upon the Property for the benefit of and in favor of, and be enforceable by, the County against the Grantee and any party in possession or occupancy of the Property or any portion thereof. The covenants, conditions and restrictions set forth in this Deed are intended to be perpetual, but may be modified in a document in recordable form executed by the County and the Grantee, or the Grantee's successors in interest in the event that the character of the neighborhood within which the Property is located changes substantially through the passage of time.

6. Property as Servient Estate. For the purposes of this instrument, the Property and all portions thereof shall be the servient tenement and the County shall be the dominant tenement. The Restrictions shall run with the Property and be binding on all persons acquiring title to the Property, or any portion thereof, and all persons claiming under them.

7. Enforcement by County. The County is the beneficiary of these Restrictions, and as such, the County may enforce these Restrictions by action at law or in equity, including without limitation, a decree of specific performance or mandatory or prohibitory injunction, against any person or persons, entity or entities, violating or attempting to violate the terms of these Restrictions.

8. Waiver; Invalidity; Construction; Venue. Any failure of the County to enforce these Restrictions shall not be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter. No waiver of these Restrictions shall be effective unless contained in a written document executed by County. Any waiver shall only be applicable to the specific instance to which it relates and shall not be deemed to be a continuing or future waiver. If any covenant, restriction, condition or provision contained in this Deed is held to be invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, such invalidity shall not affect the validity of any of the other Restrictive Covenants herein contained, all of which shall remain in full force and effect. This Deed shall be construed in accordance with the laws of Florida and venue shall be in Indian River County, Florida.

EXHIBIT "B"
