

Touring Egret Marsh Stormwater Park & Wildlife Sanctuary

By Alexis Peralta, IRC Stormwater Educator

Reducing Stormwater Pollution

- Algal Turf Scrubber- filtering nutrients, nitrogen and phosphorous, from approximately 10 million gallons of stormwater a day!
- Personal pollution prevention- learn simple ways we can all reduce pollution to the Indian River Lagoon

Wildlife Sanctuary

Offering a safe space
for protected species and local wildlife!

Protected Species of Birds

(Endangered, Threatened, and Special Concern)

Juvenile Bald Eagle

Snowy Egret

Limpkin

Protected Species of Birds

(Endangered, Threatened, and Special Concern)

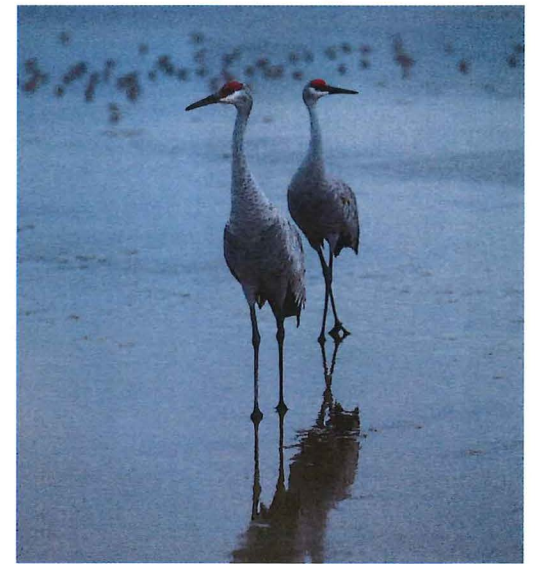

Roseate Spoonbill

Little Blue Heron

Osprey

Sandhill Crane

Protected Species of Birds

(Endangered, Threatened, and Special Concern)

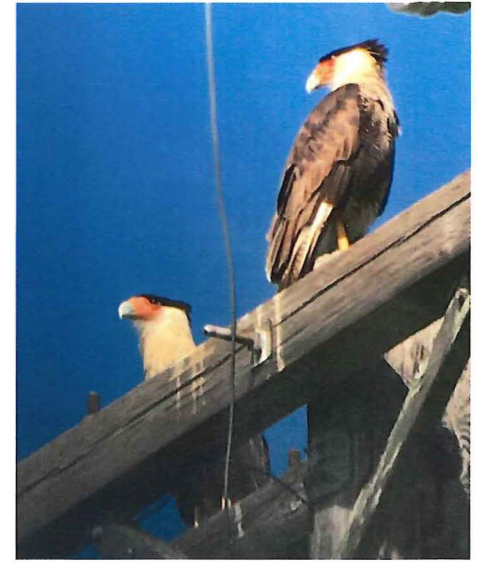

Tricolored Heron

White Ibis

Wood Stork

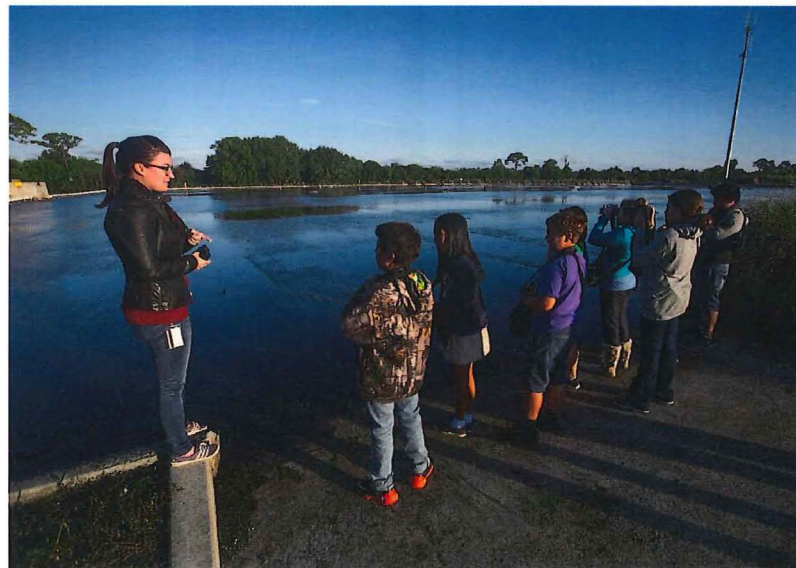

Crested Caracara

Groups hosted since 11/2018

- Audubon Advocates (5th grade afterschool program)
- Pelican Island Audubon
- Harmful Algal Bloom committee
- Clean Water Coalition
- IFAS Extension Agents
- DEP Aquatic Preserves
- Private group tours

Totaling 226 people!

Come Join Us!

Egret Marsh Stormwater Park

7295 4th ST Vero Beach FL 32968 (Closed to the Public)

An Algal Turf Scrubber Facility: Utilizing algae to filter and remove nutrients from the stormwater before reaching the Indian River Lagoon.

FREE TOURS Call (772) 226-1565