

PROCLAMATION

HONORING THE RIOMAR COUNTRY CLUB ON ITS CENTENNIAL

WHEREAS, in 1919, three men from Cleveland, W.H. Humiston, J.P. Sawyer, and E.E. Strong, founded Riomar, the first club on the Treasure Coast and one of the five oldest in Florida; and

WHEREAS, that same year, these men, with their families and friends, built a strong community from the river to the sea consisting of homes, beach pavilion, boating and fishing dock, club- and guest-house, and Vero's first golf course, which was then and remains today, the only seven-hole course on Florida's Atlantic coast; and

WHEREAS, over the past one hundred years, the Riomar Country Club has contributed to the welfare of, and through the goodwill and efforts of many members has been an integral part of the development of, Vero Beach and Indian River County; and

WHEREAS, for over one hundred years, the Riomar Country Club has been at the center of Old Riomar, providing the foundation for a great neighborhood, which has helped hundreds of families have a wonderful life in Vero Beach.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED THAT THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS, INDIAN RIVER COUNTY, FLORIDA congratulates the Riomar Country Club and its past, present, and future members on the occasion of their centennial, and extends its best wishes as the Club enters its second century.

Adopted this 15th day of January 2019.
